in the SAHMAT's booklet were tendentious and based on a particular ideological view point not supported by the findings of latest historical researches. As regards factual errors, which were primarily of editorial nature, necessary corrections have been made in the revised editions of the concerned books.

B.Ed, colleges in Andhra Pradesh

644. SHRI P. PRABHAKAR REDDY: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Government of Andhra Pradesh has sent a proposal to the National Council for Technical Education for starting four new B.Ed, colleges in the State;

(b) if so, when the details thereof; and

(c) whether the approval to the proposal has since been given and if not, the reason therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. SANJAY PASWAN); (a) to (c) There is no Council by the name of 'National Council for Technical Education[1]. However, there is a National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE) which deals with issues relating to various Teacher Education Courses. Out of the 207 applications received by the National Council for Teacher Education, 161 institutions have been granted recognition by the Southern Regional Committee (SRC) of NCTE. Applications in respect of the remaining institutions have been rejected by the SRC as they were not found to have compiled with NCTE norms. However, on consideration of appeals filed under Section 18 of the NCTE Act, the Council has accepted/ remanded back the appeal of 7 such institutions for grant of recognition from 2002-2003 or 2003-04 depending on the admission schedule of the affiliating university, and subject to verification by the university authorities of the claims of the Institution regarding list of teachers and Principal.
